

BLITZ SCHOOL FREE WW2 TEACHING RESOURCE COVER SHEET

(Please note that the resource begins on the next page after this information sheet)

Introduction

Thank you for downloading this resource, which I hope you will find useful in teaching your Second World war topic. As an experienced teacher myself, I know how difficult it can be to try to design or find the right resources for any topic so your feedback is most welcome to enable me to make improvements. If you would like to provide feedback on your experience using this resource, please contact me at info@blitzschool.co.uk and I will be happy to read your comments.

So what is Blitz School and how does it fit with the 2014 history curriculum?

The company is run by me, Darren Birchall, and I am an experienced QTS teacher offering fun and interactive WW2 simulated air raid warden training workshops based on the Home Front Experience during the second world war, tied in closely with the new 'significant events' and 'local history' strands of the New September 2014 National Curriculum.

Each workshop lasts a full day and involves an historical enquiry session with many genuine WW2 artefacts, plus a series of fun activities such as knocking over pretend wooden firebombs with stirrup pumps; blacking out windows and learning WW2 first aid. Current prices are available on my website but are typically comparable to a day's supply cost.

How do I find out more?

My website at www.blitzschool.co.uk has all the information you should require to make an informed choice about whether or not one of my workshops is suitable for your needs. Alternatively, please email me personally at info@blitzschool.co.uk for more information or to request a free enquiry pack. The site is also full of lots more free teaching resources for you to use with my compliments.

Regards (and happy History teaching ☺),

Darren
